

It does prepare me for, future , when I graduate and get a job because, I'm actually applying for an internship and I have an interview for tomorrow, so that, it shows that even though I'm an international students I have equal opportunities to succeed in my career, doing that.