

Tour One

Here at the top of the quad, we find the Felmley Hall of Science. It Houses the Department of Geography/Geology and Health Science as well as a unique planetarium. Next up is Moulton Hall where the Department of Physics is located along with the useful Student Service and Referral Center. Then we have Hovey Hall, the main administration building, where you will find those fine folks from the Admission Office. Next door, the Old Union, now the home of the Department of Information Technology and the University's National Public Radio affiliate, WGLT FM.
